

Leadership in Healthcare emphasizes a sense of mission, and empowers others to achieve it together. Leaders communicate their vision in a way that motivates performance beyond expectations, where everyone shares their insight and works with a collective purpose.

Healthcare leadership qualities

- Acting with personal integrity
- Pursuing excellence
- Cultivating personal resilience
- Acting with professional ethical values
- Optimizing team dynamics
- Serving selflessly

How to measure effective leadership

- Conduct self-assessments and seek feedback
- Reflect on objectives and key results to create accountability and transparency
- Increase effective cross-cultural communication and recognize enthusiasm and excitement
- Evaluate foundational elements to create cultural impact

Resources

- Informational Podcasts
- Journal Articles on Leadership in Healthcare
- CME Learning Modules

